PARK ART CENTER NEW EXHIBIT
“ə'klekt!c”
THE ARTISTS OF STUDIOS630

VILLA PARK, Illinois - July 15, 2016 – The works of the recently formed Studios630, a group of west suburban artists and creatives, will be on display at Park Art Center from August 5th through August 27th, with an Opening Reception on August 5th, from 6-8 pm at Park Art Center, 9 East Park Blvd., in Villa Park.

“Studios630 is comprised of talented local artists from the community – 60 members strong and growing – featuring works in various mediums, including Oil Painting, Mixed-Media, Digital Art, Printmaking and Photography. “As a group we’re really looking forward to having our “Members Show” hosted by Park Art Center. While many of our artists have shown in galleries, this is the first time most of us have shown together in one formal gallery setting. I’m really looking forward to seeing all our different styles in one room. It’s just wonderful what artists can do when they work together”, - Sean McMenemy, Co-Founder, Studios630.

The show, entitled “ə'klekt!c”, will feature the works of many of the members of Studios630 including Cheryl Rausch, Don Meyer, Enisa Gonzalez, Toby Myles, April Dippy, Sean McMenemy, Sharon Tinker, Susanna Vasko, Fran Moran, Jason Shuckhart, Lisa Rundell, Bruce Schuurmann, Nancy Mueller Morimoto, Jennifer Cooper, Cherylyn Gnad, Carolyn Dunn. The exhibit will run through August 27th, free to the public.

Members originally met serendipitously over coffee at the Corner House in Lombard and decided to collaborate in order to display and market their work close to home while also bringing art to the community. The works of Studios630 members also form a rotating exhibit, featuring from 10 to 15 artists per exhibit, at The Corner Gallery, inside The Corner House coffee house in Downtown Lombard.

“I am excited to have Studios630 exhibit here at Park Art Center. Part of our mission is to unite as many artists as we can. We feed off of each other, and influence is so important in the art field; the mix of styles and techniques are inspiring.” – said Wendee Goles, president of Park Art Center.
